Comments:

1. Explanation regarding information presented in points 2 and 3. If a deposit is not returned because the credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations to depositors, the insurance company will pay out deposit insurance. The maximum insurance payout for deposits held at one credit institution per depositor is EUR 100,000. When determining the amount of deposit insurance, all deposits held at the same credit institution are aggregated. For example, if a depositor has a savings account with EUR 90,000 and a current account with EUR 20,000, they will receive only EUR 100,000 as an insurance payout.

In some cases (when funds for the sold residential housing belonging to the depositor by the right of claim are transferred to the depositor's account no sooner than 6 months before the day of the insured event of deposits; the depositor inherits funds in accordance with a will or a law; the depositor receives funds as a beneficiary in the event of death according to a life insurance contract or a contract corresponding in its essence to a life insurance contract; the depositor receives funds as compensation or payment in the case of death of another person while carrying out job duties or official duties in the cases laid down by the law; when payments or compensations are paid to cover the damage caused by violent crimes) the deposits shall be insured by an amount exceeding EUR 100 000.

For more information please visit: www.iidraudimas.lt.

2. Explanation for information presented in point 4. If you have a joint account with another person(s), the EUR 100,000 protection limit is separately applied to each co-owner of the deposit.

3. Explanation for information presented in point 5. Payment of insurance payouts.

Responsible for the deposit insurance system is the insurance company (Public Institution "Deposit and Investment Insurance," Savanorių pr. 5, LT-03116 Vilnius, tel. +370 5 213 5657, email: idf@idf.lt), website www.iidraudimas.lt. It will return your deposits (up to EUR 100,000) no later than 7 working days.
